

WILDLIFE

WILDLIFE - Many local species of wildlife are on the endangered, threatened or species of special concern list and must not be harmed in any way. Those include the burrowing owl, tricolored heron, limpkin and wood stork just to name a few that you may be familiar with. Not harming also means feeding all the vast wildlife here in Lauderdale West. Please stop the feeding. You are doing them more harm than good. Let's all enjoy our local wildlife!

May 17, 2019